

VILLAGE tweet

CONNECTING THE COMMUNITY AND LOCAL BUSINESS

WHERE YOU CAN PICK-UP A COPY!

Village Tweet is delivered to around 9,000 homes by Royal Mail, in and around Billingshurst, using their excellent Door-to-Door service, and is therefore the only magazine in the area to reach every home

In addition, over 400 copies are left at various static pick-up points each month.

These are useful if...

- You work in the distribution area, but don't live there, and therefore don't receive a copy
- You don't live in the area but are visiting, perhaps to do some shopping
- You have lost your copy or simply want another, maybe for a friend
